Dear Ian,

We are writing to formally thank you for your performance on the evening of Monday 23rd September of your show "Bringing Harry Home". No doubt the standing ovation you received was indication enough of how much the audience enjoyed your work.

In addition to that we wanted to say what a joy it was to see such a strong performance on our stage, and we greatly appreciated your willingness to contribute your talent to the New Theatre community. We are constantly looking for work that will appeal to a wider audience, and on that evening, we were thrilled to see that your show drew people to the theatre who we have not seen before.

Good luck with your tour, and if you are ever looking for a venue in Sydney again, we would be delighted to host your production.

Yours faithfully,

The New Theatre Management Committee
